3. MINUTES

Resolved: That the minutes of the meeting held on 6 February 2013 be signed by the Chairman as a correct record.

4. TROUBLED FAMILIES PROGRAMME IN WESTMINSTER (see report of the Tri-Borough Director of Children's Services)

4.1 James Thomas introduced the report. He circulated updated details of the figures set out in the report. He gave details of the work being undertaken with other London boroughs to ascertain action they were taking which may assist the Council in improving its position. He also referred to the evaluation work being undertaken, together with the other tri-borough authorities.

4.2 The Cabinet Committee recognised that the results of the programme were at an interim stage, and further more detailed figures would be available for a further meeting to be held in November. The Committee advised that they wanted as much analysed data as possible on the achievements of the programme at that stage so they could take an informed decision at their next meeting.

- 4.3 Resolved: That a report be submitted to a further meeting of the Cabinet Committee to be held in mid to late November the report to contain as much analytical data as possible on the latest results of the programme to allow a decision to be taken on the future stages of the programme.

5. CLOSE OF MEETING

The meeting ended at 6.26pm.
