1. Application

1-A Applicant and premises
Application Type:	Variation of a Premises Licence, Licensing Act 2003
Application received date:	22 January 2016
Applicant:	Mrs Lai Mei Tang
Premises:	Super Star Chinese Restaurant
Premises address:	17 Lisle Street London WC2H 7BE	Ward:	St James's
		Cumulative Impact Area:	West End
Premises description:	The premises operate as a Chinese restaurant in the basement ground and first floors.
Variation description:	To remove Condition 11 of the premises licence which states that "Mr Desmond Sai Loi Tang shall not be permitted to be upon the licensed premises at any time, and he shall not be involved in the management of the venue or the staff working there."
Premises licence history:	The premises licence history can be found at Appendix 5 of the report
Preliminary Note:	The premises licence has been subjected to a quality check. The current licence issued on 6 November 2015 contains a number of errors. The errors relate to the standard conditions relating to the converted Night Café licence and the conditions of the Justice Restaurant licence. The correct licensing position is as follows: Alcohol is supplied for consumption on the premises Conditions relating to the provision of late night refreshment This licence is subject to all the former regulations made by Westminster City Council prescribing standard conditions for annual night café licences, effective from 1 October 2001. The premises maybe kept open for the purposes of this licence from midnight on each of the days Sunday to Thursday to 1:00 am on the day following and from midnight on the days Friday and Saturday to 2:00am on the day following: The number of persons that can be accommodated shall not exceed: Ground floor – 60, First floor 60 (excluding staff) Conditions reproducing the effect of conditions

	subject to which the relevant existing licences have effect Conditions for Sale of Alcohol Intoxicating liquor shall not be sold or supplied on the premises otherwise than to persons taking table meals there and for consumption by such a person as an ancillary to his meal. Suitable beverages other than intoxicating liquor (including drinking water) shall be equally available with or otherwise as an ancillary to meals served in the licensed premises. Alcohol may be sold or supplied: (d) On New Year's Eve, except on a Sunday, 10:00 to 00:00 (e) On New Year's Eve on a Sunday, 12:00 to 23:30 Conditions which reproduce the effect of any restriction imposed on the use of the premises by specified enactment The terminal hour for Late Night Refreshment on New Year's Eve is extended to 05:00 on New Year's Day.
Applicant submissions:	The restaurant business is run by Mr Tang and his wife Mrs Lai Mei Tang (the premises licence holder and applicant) through their company. As the de-facto owner of the business, it is natural for Mr Tang to be at the premises and be involved in the management of the venue or the staff working there and as such Condition 11 is unreasonably restricting him from running his business and in breach his human rights to earn his living. The Condition was added to the premises licence pursuant to a minor variation application by the premises licence holder on 17 September 2015 following a discussion with the Westminster Licensing Inspectorate Francis Keegan. However, at the time of the application the premises licence holder had not fully appreciated the true effect of the Condition. Further, at the time of the application the licence holder had been pressured into agreeing the Condition and being threatened with a formal review and revocation of the premises licence. She had not been advised properly that there is no genuine requirement for the imposition of the Condition which, it is submitted, is a disproportionate suggestion by the Westminster Licensing Inspectorate in response to his site inspection.

It is now apparent to the premises licence holder that the Condition is very draconian and restrictive indeed as it prohibits Mr Tang from being in the premises at all, or even to make any decisions concerning his restaurant business. The effect of the Condition is that Mr Tang could not even have a meal in his own restaurant, or from making trivial decisions concerning the business, for example to change the menu, or to order stocks for his restaurants etc.

It is submitted that the removal of Condition 11 will not have any adverse impact on the four licensing objectives. There is no evidence that restricting Mr Tang from accessing the premises or be involved in the running of the business will promote the licensing objectives.

Mr Tang has acknowledged the previous oversight in the management of the premises and is committed to ensuring his premises operate in accordance with the licensing conditions in future. This can be seen by him agreeing to remove himself as the DPS of the premises. The premises licence holder have also agreed for additional Conditions 12-18 to be added unto the premises licence in the minor variation application of 17 September 2015, including agreeing for a duty manager (who will be a personal licence holder) to be at the premises at all times and also agreeing for CCTV to be installed at the premises.

Mr Tang is an experienced restaurateur with many years of experience in the business. By removing Condition 11 this will enable Mr Tang to devote his time, effort and energy into ensuring the premises is run in accordance with the relevant legislations and regulations.

Subject: 17 Lisle Street - investigation summary

Hi Yolanda

Below is a summary of the investigation will this be sufficient?

Thanks

Toby

Summary of incident and investigation.

On Thursday 2nd July 2015 Francis KEEGAN and Siva KUMAR were in plain clothes and on duty as Licensing inspectors from Westminster Council. At approximately 0220 hours they attempted to enter 17 Lisle street as they believed licensed activity was taking place after hours. They both showed their council ID to a male at the entrance who claimed that he did not work there. They waited for a short while before proceeding up the stairs unaccompanied. They walked into a room of about 30 people. Francis was suddenly approached by Mr TANG and before he had chance to formally introduce himself and his colleague Mr TANG started shouting at him in Chinese and poked him in the ribs and pushed him. Francis KEEGAN protested and asked him to not touch him, saying clearly that he was on 'official business' and that he should not touch him. MR TANG did not understand and grabbed his right arm and pulled him towards the door in order to eject him. At this point MR TANGS wife pushed in between them both and released MR KEEGANS arm from MR TANGS GRIP. Mr KEEGANS bag fell on the floor and as KUMAR tried to pick it up MR TANG grabbed his shirt. MR TANG eventually let go and was dragged away by his wife who then dealt with the inspectors. Francis did not sustain any visible injury.

The venue was visited by myself two days after the incident and CCTV footage was requested as they had cameras fitted in the venue. At the time the staff member was unable to operate the CCTV so was unable to show me any footage (this was not a condition on the licence at the time). I returned the following day and met with Mr TANG who was able to operate the CCTV but informed me it had not been recording as he was unable to find any footage. I looked at the system and observed that no data was being stored on the Hard drive. I was unable to tell if data on the hard drive had been recently deleted.

Mr Tang was interviewed under caution and during interview MR TANG denied assault and poking Francis in the ribs stating that he was at a staff party which was not open to the public and no licensable activity was taking place. He had been drinking and when he saw the two males enter he did not know who they were as they were not in uniform and were not displaying any ID. As he was in charge of the party he did not want anyone he did not know entering and so attempted to stop them using his arms to block them. He stated he then tried to lead them to the door so they could leave. He states that as soon as they identified themselves properly he stopped and walked away and let his wife deal with the situation. He states he put out his arm to block Francis and Siva to stop them coming further into the room, but made no attempt to assault them.

CCTV was checked however the footage had been not recorded.
There are no known independent witnesses
No visible injuries.

The evidence was passed to the Evidence review officer who reviewed the case and made the decision of no further action due to insufficient evidence.

This statement (consisting of _____ page(s) each signed by me) is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I make it knowing that, if it is tendered in evidence, I shall be liable to prosecution if I have wilfully stated in it anything which I know to be false, or do not believe to be true.

I am the above named person and am employed by the City of Westminster as a City Inspector. Part of my role is to monitor licensed venues, and I am authorised to enter and inspect such venues.

On Thursday 2nd July 2015 I was on duty in the West End with my colleague, Mr S Kumar

At approximately 0220 hours we were in Lisle Street when we were passing the venue known as Super Star Restaurant at 17 Lisle Street, London WC2.

I noticed the entrance door of the venue was open, and a number of Chinese looking ladies left the venue. I noticed that the door to the venue was being held open for the ladies in question by a young Chinese man dressed in black. Suddenly the door closed and I witnessed the man lock the door shut.

Mr Kumar and I approached the venue, the ground floor of which was in darkness. I saw the first page of the Part B/Summary of a premises licence displayed in the window, which suggested that the venue should have ceased trading at 1am.

I knocked firmly on the venue's glass door and held my Council issued identification/photocard to the glass. The young man approached and I called out "Westminster Council, Licensing visit, open up please". There was some delay but the young man eventually opened the door using a key and I explained who I was and that I wanted to see the manager. I could hear very loud music coming from upstairs. The man asked me to wait at the entrance, but we said we preferred to come in (which we did).

I saw an elderly man at the rear of the venue's ground floor, sitting at a table and using a laptop, and he announced that there was a staff party taking place upstairs. I thanked him for volunteering this information.

I asked the younger man where the manager was, but no useful answer was given. I then noticed that (what I believed to be) a fire door between the room I was in and the stairwell was wedged fully open by a chair. Both men claimed that they did not work at the venue (even the younger man, who had the key to the entrance door) I announced that I had waited long enough, and was going upstairs. This seemed to upset the young man and he stepped forward. I told him that I was an authorised Council Officer, and I asked him to step back as he was invading my space.

In the stairwell I saw, and pointed out to my colleague, that not only was a fire door (?) wedged open, but that numerous items (mainly cardboard boxes) were being stored in the emergency escape route.

We ascended the stairs and I entered a large room. I saw many Chinese people (30 or more) sitting and standing. There were many plates and platters with food on them, and many opened bottles of "Tiger" beer. I asked a few people who looked like they worked there (as they were dressed as waiting staff), but they all claimed that they did not. I walked slowly around the room to ascertain exactly what was going on, when suddenly a man who I recognized approached me. Before I had a chance to formally introduce my colleague and I, the man started shouting at me in Chinese, and poking me in the ribs and pushing me. I protested, asking him not to touch me, saying clearly that I was on official business, and that he should not touch me. He did not seem to listen, and then suddenly he grabbed my right arm firmly and started to pull me towards the door leading to the stairs.

I heard a scream from behind me, and looked to see an older Chinese lady (who I also recognized) who was clearly in distress. She rushed forward, as did a younger man, and they (and others) got between me and the man who had grabbed my arm, and they struggled with him.

I was concerned that I may fall over because of his actions and /or that he would get me to the stairs and throw me down them. I resisted his efforts to pull me forward, and used my free arm to push against the door frame

I could see my colleague to my right, who was obviously concerned but who (quite rightly, I feel) stood back from the "action"

Suddenly the group before me seemed to stumble, and the man released my arm, and I suddenly lost my back-pack, which had been slung over my right shoulder. I did not worry about this, being merely happy that I was now in less danger. However, Mr Kumar stepped forward to get my bag, and before I could tell him not to bother the assailant grabbed his shirt collar. There was a great deal of shouting by now from the attacker, the older lady, and others, but after a few moments I could see that my colleague was free and I indicated that he should join me at a vacant table some distance from the continuing violent scene, which involved a great deal of shouting and struggling

Suddenly the man who had grabbed me was nowhere to be seen, and the older lady mentioned above (who was clearly distraught) gave some instructions to a number of people, one of whom came forward eventually and spoke to us, confirming that he was a member of staff. He was unable to produce the full licence (Part A) when requested to do so. Whilst waiting for him to find the document, my colleague and I checked the upper floors which were by then empty but were laid out as private / karaoke rooms. During this time my colleague mentioned that he had seen people playing cards when he first entered the first floor, and that he saw money on the table, but I did not see this myself.

Continuation of Statement of: FRANCIS KEEGAN

However, I felt that what the staff member (and others) said to us was unhelpful and (I am sure) untruthful. However, he confirmed that the venue had a good CCTV system and I said that he should ensure that all CCTV images relating to our visit should be retained as potential evidence.

By now the music had died down considerably, and I pointed out a few matters of concern to the members of staff already mentioned, and soon after this my colleague and I left the venue having issued some strong words of advice to those who would listen

I was quite shaken by the incident and on reflection I had cause to think that my personal safety had been put at risk. What concerned me most was the totally unreasonable behaviour of the man who attacked me. He simply refused to listen to anything I said, and he grabbed hold of my arm very firmly and would not let go until he was forced to do so. I believe he would have thrown me down the stairs if he had been able/allowed to do so

Upon my return to the office I submitted a brief report by email about what had happened to my line manager (Andrew Ralph) which I now see contains a number of typing error On 6 July I returned to the venue with another colleague (Tony Miah) and we also visited another venue (at 15 Lisle Street). Eventually, Mr Desmond Sai Loi Tang (the licensee for both venues) came forward. I recognised him as the man who had attacked me, and he agreed that he was the person in question, and that the lady who had screamed (and come to my aid) was the other licensee (and his wife), Mrs Tang

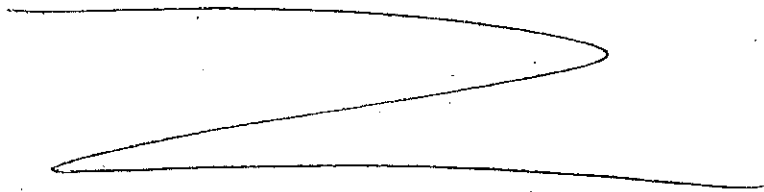

On 6 and 7 July 2015 I told the Westminster Police Licensing team that I wanted to bring a formal complaint against Mr Desmond Sai Loi Tang , and asked them to secure the CCTV images from the venue's system which I feel will fully confirm my version of events

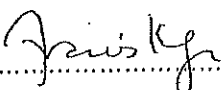

I asked them to also deliver to the venue a copy of a letter I had already sent to Mrs Tang, and which has now been acknowledged by Mr P H Yeung (of 3 Rupert Court, London. W1) who says he has been instructed by her in relation to the "unfortunate incident".

I would describe Mr TANG as a Chinese looking male, Late 50's, overweight and approximately 5'6" tall. He has dark straight short hair and was wearing a dark jacket.

The assault on me lasted about 2 minutes, at all times I had a clear and unobstructed view of Mr TANG and the visibility was good due to the room being well lit. I do recognise Mr TANG as I have met him on a previous occasion at his other restaurant.

At no time did I give anyone permission to assault me in this way. I am happy to attend court if needed.

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your email.

I note you say that you did not request a further meeting , so it seems I misunderstood your earlier comments (i.e. Once I have your proposed conditions, I should be able to discuss the matter further with you.) My apologies.

In any event, the new conditions I would ask for are as follows:

In respect of No 17 Lisle Street, I would ask your client to consider seeking a variation of the licence so as to add CCTV-related conditions similar to those listed as condition Nos 29 and 30 on the licence issued for No 15 Lisle Street dated 27 July 2015.

In addition, for both venues, I would ask your client to consider seeking a variation of the licences so as to add the following conditions:

Mr Desmond Sai Loi Tang shall not be permitted to be upon the licensed premises at any time, and he shall not be involved in the management of the venue or the staff working there

If the premises licence holder is not present, there shall be a duty manager upon and in charge of the venue whenever it is open and trading, and whenever any person (other than staff members) are still present *. This duty manager shall be the holder of a personal licence, evidence of which shall be produced to authorised persons upon request. The licensee or duty manager shall make themselves known promptly to any authorised persons who visit or inspect the venue and s/he shall assist them in their duties.

In the absence of the premises licence holder, a letter of delegations specifically naming the duty manager(s) shall be prominently displayed near the entrance of the venue.

The licensee or duty manager shall ensure that the venue is operated safely and that no unlawful activities are permitted to take place within the venue, and shall also ensure that all licensable activities are strictly limited to those areas covered by the licence and to the permitted hours.

The entrance to the venue shall not be locked whenever any persons (other than staff members) are still present, and authorised officers shall be given prompt access to all parts of the premises at any reasonable time.

The effect of this condition is that a duty manager cannot leave the venue at relevant times (even temporarily) unless there is another properly nominated manager also upon the venue to take his/her place.

Please submit the suggested applications within the next 7 days or submit to me a written explanation as to why the applications (as suggested) are not to be submitted, in which case I will have to consider my options.

Also, within the next 7 days, I should like to receive further information about your other comments (i.e. "I have been asked by my clients to consider the trading activities of 17 Lisle Street, and how the premises should be better used particularly in compliance with licensing regulations.")

Dear Mr Keegan,

It was the incorrect impression I gained from your email. There was a small delay in replying, and you re-stated the situation as if you were not aware the applications were prompted by you, and it was not an easy decision to make and my clients were complying with what you had stated in your email dated 21.7.2015 "for a more open/honest and more mature relationship" (very impressive on paper). I trust the application would be eventually accepted and approved by the Council without further ado.

I have been asked by my clients to consider the trading activities of 17 Lisle Street, and how the premises should be better used particularly in compliance with licensing regulations.

Once I have your proposed conditions, I should be able to discuss the matter further with you.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

I write further to my email of 6 August.

On 27 July the new premises licence for 15 Lisle Street was sent to Messrs Tomas and Thomas (see below) and now your client (Mrs Tang) has now applied to transfer the licence and to nominate herself as the DPS.

Similar applications have been submitted in respect of 17 Lisle Street.

I shall advise you shortly of what additional licence conditions I will be inviting your client to attach to each licence by way of variation applications.
