

Outside Bodies

- 41.1 The Council defines outside bodies as a body which does not exercise a Council function, but which operates within the City of Westminster. Such a body is one which seeks a representative from the Council.
- 41.2 Appointments to outside bodies will be administered by the Head of Governance and Councillor Liaison with appointments and nominations made in accordance with the wishes expressed by the relevant party chief whip.
- 41.3 A list of bodies is attached.

DETAILED BACKGROUND ON OUTSIDE BODIES AND THE INSURANCE FOR THOSE SERVING ON OUTSIDE BODIES

- 41.4 The Council defines outside bodies as a body which does not exercise a Council function, but which operates within the City of Westminster. Such a body is one which seeks a representative from the Council.
- 41.5 Appointments to outside bodies will be administered by the Head of Governance and Councillor Liaison with appointments and nominations made in accordance with the wishes expressed by the relevant party chief whip. A list of bodies is attached.
- 41.6 Bodies eligible for the list are those that:
- Invite representation from boroughs across London that we wish to contribute to.
 - We are a member organisation of and wish to contribute to.
 - Are administered through the Council and need Member representation on their boards.
- 41.7 There are a number of outside bodies of varying descriptions to which the City Council customarily nominates members and officers. In a few cases the City Council's representative merely acts as an "observer" in order to represent the City Council's interests and does not take part in decision making; for the most part such "observers" are covered by the City Council's existing Indemnity given to members and officers and by the Council's public liability insurance. Generally the number of outside bodies to which the Council nominates Members has reduced in recent years and the current list is attached as an Appendix to this section.
- 41.8 In certain cases, however, City Council members and officers act as directors or trustees or members of the management committees of outside bodies or otherwise play an active role in the affairs of the body in question, often because the constitutions of such bodies stipulate that such Council nominees must act in such capacities. Those who act as directors, trustees or members of the management committee owe a "fiduciary duty" to the outside body in question. In certain very limited circumstances they may be personally liable for the debts of the bodies on which they serve, or in relation to third party claims brought against those bodies.

41.9 the directors of such companies will be personally liable only in exceptional circumstances, such as for deliberate or reckless breach of trust or knowingly causing the company to act beyond its powers or to trade whilst insolvent. Much the same is true in relation to charitable trustees. Many charities are themselves limited companies, normally "companies limited by guarantee" whose members' personal liability is ordinarily restricted to the sum of one pound (£1) which they have guaranteed to contribute towards the payment of the company's debts. Charitable trustees and company directors can generally avoid personal liability by being careful to take appropriate professional advice before making decisions. However, they may be personally liable (without limit) if they deliberately or recklessly take actions in breach of trust or without having taken appropriate advice.

Such indemnity shall apply to any liability of any member or employee as the City Council's representative or nominee on an outside body and to any employee who in connection with their employment with the City Council provides an administrative, technical, professional or other service to any person or body outside the City Council.

Conditions and Limitations:

(1) This indemnity will not extend to loss or damage directly or indirectly caused by or arising from:

(a) Fraud, dishonesty, deliberate wrongdoing or recklessness, or any criminal offence on the part of a member or employee (except where the criminal offence is an offence under the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work Act etc 1974 or relevant statutory provisions within the meaning of that Act in which case the indemnity will continue to apply).

Appendix 2

Indemnity

The City Council will, subject to the exceptions below, indemnify all Councillors or employees of the Council against any damages, costs or legal expenses which any such Councillor or employee may be ordered to pay or may reasonably have incurred arising from activities carried out on behalf of the Council if the Councillor or employee acted in good faith and honestly believed that the act complained of was within their power and that their duty as a Councillor or employee required or entitled them to do or omit to do it. Such indemnity shall apply to any liability incurred by any Councillor or employee as the City Council's representative on an outside body and to any employee who in connection with their employment with the City Council provides an administrative, technical, professional or other service to any person or body outside the City Council.

For avoidance of doubt this indemnity will apply to existing and former Councillors and employees in respect of acts and omissions whilst they were Councillors or employees.

Exceptions:

- (1) This indemnity will not extend to loss or damage directly or indirectly caused by or arising from:
 - a.  - b. Any neglect, error or omission by an individual otherwise than in the course of their duty.
 - c. Activities which are "ultra vires" i.e. outside the legal powers of the City Council, save to the extent that at the time of the activity concerned the individual bona fide and reasonably believed that the activity was intra vires, i.e. within the legal powers of the City Council.
 - d. Liability in respect of any surcharge and Sections 17 and 18 of the Audit Commission Act 1998. Provided that where upon final determination of an objection to the Auditor the Council is satisfied that a person the subject of an objection was not blameworthy it will meet the legal costs reasonably incurred by such a person in connection with such objection.
- (2) This indemnity will not apply if a Councillor or employee without the written authority of the Director of Law admits liability or negotiates or attempts to negotiate a settlement of any claim falling within the scope of this resolution.

- (3) This indemnity will not apply where a Councillor or employee has been appointed to and is acting in the capacity of:
