- (6) Where any question has, in the Chair's opinion been incorrectly addressed to a particular Cabinet Member or Committee Chair, they may redirect the question to the appropriate Member.

Every question shall, subject to (2) below, receive a reply within three weeks of the date of its receipt by the Chief Executive and such replies shall be published on the Council's website.
- (2) Cabinet Member or the Committee Chair (or their nominee) may decline to answer a question if assembling the necessary information would, in their opinion, involve excessive cost.
- (3) Urgent and Written Questions may be edited by the Chief Executive if necessary, either to put them in proper form and/or to secure reasonable brevity. A question which in the opinion of the Chief Executive comprises of more than one part shall be referred back to the Member who submitted it for direction as to which part he requires to be answered. The Chief Executive may disallow or edit any such question which in his opinion is not relevant to the functions or powers of the Council, or is wholly or in part frivolous or derogatory to the dignity of the Council, or where any question has been incorrectly addressed to a particular member, redirect the question to the appropriate member.

2.10. COUNCILLOR ISSUES

- (1) Three weeks prior to each Ordinary Council Group Whips will nominate one Councillor (except the Lord Mayor and Cabinet Members) to propose an issue for inclusion on the Council agenda, that relates to a function of the City Council. The Group which has the nomination rights for this item at each meeting shall be decided on a proportionate basis.
- (2) The Councillor selected in the draw will have to give notice to the Chief Executive of their chosen item by 12 noon two weeks prior to the Council meeting for inclusion on the agenda and the Chief Executive shall, on notice to the Councillor concerned, disallow any issue that is not relevant to the function of the City Council.
- (3) At the meeting the selected Councillor will speak first and then the Cabinet Member (or Committee Chair, if appropriate) will reply.

2.11. AGENDA ITEMS FOR DEBATE AND DECISION

- (1) All reports of the Cabinet, Committees or from Officers shall, where practicable, be sent to each member with the notice convening the meeting of the Council at which they will be considered.
- (2) The Cabinet, Cabinet Committees, individual Cabinet Members and relevant Committees shall, if making a recommendation for a decision, submit a written report including such a recommendation to the Council.
- (3) Items for debate. Groups will be allowed to select any policy or operational matter relevant to the Council or City. In cases of doubt about relevance of subjects the Chief Executive, as Proper Officer, is empowered to determine the validity of a subject. The Group proposing the subject is required to give a single line title as well as a short paragraph to explain the nature of the debate and assist debate participants to prepare appropriately.
- (4) A nominated representative of each of the two largest political groups on the Council shall, no later than 10am on the sixth day before the Council Meeting (usually the preceding Thursday) notify the Chief Executive of the Group's choice and preferred order of items for debate as per section (3) above and from, including from amongst the Cabinet and Committee Reports, and any Notices of Motion set out under Standing Orders.
- (5) The Chief Executive shall draw up a list identifying the items selected by the groups and the order selected.
- (6) A Cabinet Member or a Committee Chair (or nominee) may correct errors in any paragraph in any part of a report or recommendation, or with the consent of the Council withdraw any report or recommendation.

- (7) Time for debates shall be allocated proportionally based on the Groups elected to the Council. Only formally constituted Groups shall be entitled to time in the debate section of the meeting. In the event that there is less than 1 hour 25 minutes available prior to 10pm the Chair will reduce the debating time to a proportionate amount. In the event that the time allocated for the Public Participation Item (section 2.8) is not used this will be allocated back into debate time.
- (8) When reached in accordance with the preferred priority order of debate, each paragraph with a recommendation will be deemed to have been moved and seconded. The Cabinet Member or the Committee Chair (or nominee) may speak first and may nominate another Member to exercise his right of reply to the debate.
- (9) Any item containing a recommendation may, subject to Standing Order 2.12 (1), be the subject of comment or a motion to amend the recommendation or of a motion that the recommendation be referred back to the Cabinet or a Committee. No other motion affecting such an item shall be moved.
- (10) A member moving that a recommendation be referred back to the Cabinet or a Committee or moving an amendment to a recommendation shall not have the right of reply. Such right shall be available only to the member moving the reception of the report or their nominee and upon the exercise of that right the debate on the reference back or the amendment then under discussion shall be closed.
- (11) Any member may comment in respect of any issue selected for debate that does not include a recommendation, but neither a motion nor an amendment to it shall be permitted.
- (12) Subject to (13) (14) and (15) below, with five minutes remaining of each Group's time, the Chair shall call the relevant Cabinet Member or Committee Chair (or nominee) to respond to the debate on the paragraph then under debate. Debate will then continue on other Group(s) item(s). The same procedure shall be adopted with five minutes remaining of each Groups' business. The Chair will terminate the meeting under Standing Order 20 on the conclusion of all Group business.
- (13) If the Majority Group and the Opposition Group(s) both select the same item for debate and the relevant Cabinet Member or Committee Chair has been called to respond on that item during the time allocated to the Majority Group, then the debate on that item shall thereafter be regarded as concluded and the item will not be called again during the time allocated to the Opposition Group(s). In the event that the last item being debated in the time allocated to the Majority Group is also the first item selected by the Opposition Group(s) then the debate will be allowed to continue into the time allocated to the Opposition Group(s) and the relevant Cabinet Member or Committee Chair will be called to respond at the conclusion of the debate or that item or after 30 minutes of the Opposition Group(s) time as appropriate, rather than after 45 minutes of Majority Group time.

- (14) If a Cabinet Member or a Committee Chair or their nominee is making the first speech on an item selected for debate when 45 minutes has elapsed then the Chair may treat that speech as the last speech.
- (15) Any matter formally referred to the Council for debate by a Policy and Scrutiny Committee shall have priority for debate and the time spent shall be deducted in the relevant proportions from the time allocated to Majority/Opposition Group(s) business.
- (16) On the conclusion of other items on the agenda (if any) the Chair shall then call, in the order appearing on the agenda the remaining paragraphs not yet debated in any report which include recommendations and when called the recommendations in any paragraph shall be deemed to have been moved and seconded.
- (17) The appropriate Executive Director is required to have regard to the views of Members expressed during debate when preparing reports for consideration by the Cabinet/Cabinet Members.

- (1) No motion shall be moved unless it is submitted in writing (signed by the proposer) to the Chief Executive no later than 2 pm. on the fourteenth day before the meeting at which the motion is to be moved, and is included on the summons for that meeting. A motion shall be duly seconded at the meeting. This Paragraph does not apply to motions moved under Standing Orders to amend or refer back a recommendation of a Committee (see 2.13(5) (a, b and c) below).
- (2) The Chief Executive may, in consultation with the proposer of any motion of which notice has been given edit the motion, either to put it into proper form and/or to secure brevity. - (6) No motion or amendment shall be moved which has the same effect as any motion which has been negated within the preceding six months but, this shall not apply to a motion to adopt a recommendation of the Cabinet, Cabinet Member or a Committee. Neither shall this paragraph apply to any Procedural Motion under Standing Orders but the Chair may disallow such a motion if it is in their opinion to the same or similar effect as a previous motion already disposed of on the same item.

- (7) Except when the Council is considering annual estimates, no motion or amendment which would have the effect of incurring expenditure (other than minor incidental expenditure) shall be moved at a meeting of the Council except in the form of an instruction to Cabinet, a Cabinet Member or a Committee for consideration and report.
- (8) A Member may at any time withdraw a motion or amendment or any part thereof of which he has given notice. If a motion is withdrawn any amendments to that motion automatically fall. If a motion is partially withdrawn, any amendments to those parts of the motion which have been withdrawn will automatically fall, save where an amendment consists of the addition of complete sentences which are free standing notwithstanding the withdrawal of parts of the motion and, therefore, in the view of the Chief Executive, should be allowed to stand unless withdrawn by the mover of the amendment.
- (9) When a motion referring a matter to the Cabinet or a Committee is carried, the member who moved the motion shall if he is not a member of the Cabinet or the appropriate Committee be invited to attend the first meeting of the Cabinet or Committee at which the matter is to be considered and shall be entitled to be heard thereon, provided that if the Cabinet or a Committee at the first meeting at which the matter is considered calls for a further report the member concerned shall have the same rights in respect of any subsequent meeting at which such report is to be considered. Where the Motion is referred to a Cabinet Member, the Member shall be entitled to make representations orally to the Cabinet Member on question before a decision is made on the matter.
- (10) Notices of Motion may be selected for debate within any Group's debate time as provided for under Standing Orders.

2.14. CONDUCT OF DEBATE

- (1) Members shall stand in their places to indicate their wish to speak and, if two or more members rise, the Chair may select one of them to speak in which case all other members shall be seated. Any such prior notification shall be notified by the Chief Executive who shall circulate at the meeting a list of those nominated to speak, but the list shall not confer any right to speak at the meeting and the Chair may call others to speak, and may take into account the proportionality of groups in calling speakers. When any member has been called to speak by the Chair, other members shall remain seated unless rising on a point of order or to make a personal explanation.

- (2) Whenever the Chair rises from their Chair, every other member shall sit and be silent and he shall be heard without interruption.
- (3) All speeches shall be no longer than five minutes unless the Council specifically consents to an extension of time, or the Chair extends the time because of interruption or intervention.
- (4) A member shall speak to the matter under discussion, or to a personal explanation or to a point of order. If a member does not comply with this paragraph or inappropriately engages in imputation of improper motives or other breaches of order the Chair shall call that member to order and may tell them to stop speaking.
- (5) A member may speak only:-
 - (a) on motions or amendments, or
 - (b) to ask or answer questions under Standing Order 2.9; or
 - (c) to raise a point of order; or
 - (d) to make a personal explanation, or
 - (e) to make an intervention for no more than one minute, with the consent of the person then speaking in the debate whose allocated time to speak will be unaffected by the length of the intervention and who may only give way to a maximum of two interventions in any one speech.

This shall not apply to the Chair, nor where in other circumstances they give permission to a member to speak.

- (6) No one may speak more than once on any motion (including a recommendation of the Cabinet or a Committee) except:
 - (a) the mover of a motion who may reply both to the debate on the unamended motion and to the debate on any proposal to amend the motion;
 - (b) the member who formally seconds a motion or a proposal to amend the motion provided that they reserve their right to speak at the time of seconding. This right does not exist in respect of procedural motions under Standing Orders;
 - (c) the member who successfully moves an amendment to a motion of which written notice has been given in accordance with Standing Orders who shall have the right of reply to the debate on the substantive motion following their amendment, and to any proposal to further amend (in place of the Mover of

- the original Motion);
- (d) a member may speak on a proposal to amend a motion on which they have already spoken;
 - (e) a member who has spoken in support of an unsuccessful proposal to amend a motion may also speak on the unamended motion;

- (8) The right to make a reserved speech under (6)(b) of this Standing Order is lost if a closure motion or an adjournment motion is carried; but the right of reply of the mover of the original motion in either of those events is preserved.
- (9) Only one amendment may be moved and discussed at any time, and no further amendment shall be moved until the amendment under discussion has been disposed of, provided that the Chair may permit two or more amendments to be discussed (but not voted on) together if they judge it to be in the best interests of facilitating the proper conduct of the Council's business, and where this occurs the amendments shall be voted on in the order in which they were moved. Similarly, the Chair may, on the same basis, permit a motion and proposed amendment(s) to be discussed (but not voted on) together. Where this occurs amendment(s) shall be voted on first in the order in which they were moved before the original or amended substantive motion is put to the vote.
- (10) When an amendment is carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.

2.15. POINTS OF ORDER AND PERSONAL EXPLANATION

- (1) A member may at any time raise a point of order but when so doing they shall specify the particular Standing Order or statutory provision which they allege has been breached or on which they otherwise rely, specifying in the case of a Standing Order the number and the relevant paragraph and the way in which they consider it has been breached. Any member speaking at the time a point of order is raised, shall resume their seat.

- (2) Subject to (3) below a member making a personal explanation shall be entitled to be heard forthwith. Any member speaking at the time a personal explanation is to be made shall immediately resume their seat.

- (2) Where the Chair considers that there should be a formal count of the vote, the Chief Executive shall conduct the count based on a show of hands. The Chair shall then declare the result of the vote.
